

OVERVIEW

The SGA International Equity Fund (the “International Equity Fund” or the “Fund”) seeks total return, consisting of current income and long-term capital appreciation, by investing principally in non-U.S. equity securities and other permitted vehicles representing generally mid- to large-sized businesses whose headquarters or majority of economic activity are or were at one time outside the United States.

INVESTMENT PROCESS

SGA’s investment process can best be described as a combination of both systematic and traditional approaches to sound fundamental research. SGA believes a disciplined fundamental approach that integrates proprietary systematic and traditional analysis applied globally will generate superior risk-adjusted returns.

There are risks involved with investing, including possible loss of principal. In addition to the normal risks associated with investing, international investments may involve risk of capital loss from unfavorable fluctuation in currency values, from differences in generally accepted accounting principles or from social, economic or political instability in other nations. REIT investments are subject to changes in economic conditions, credit risk and interest rate fluctuations. The Fund may invest in derivatives, which are often more volatile than other investments and may magnify the Fund's gains or losses.
